Inclusive Music for All Ages

Participants will experience the transforming, liberating power of music that includes the Female Divine and other expansive imagery, music that can be used in various settings and with all age groups.

Music has power to embed messages of love, peace, liberation, social justice, equality, and inclusiveness in our hearts to shape our actions. Music has great power to transform our world. Music that includes the Female Divine and other expansive imagery instills in us the values of equality and justice, beginning with children at the earliest ages. Participants will experience inclusive, transformational music that can be used in various settings and for all age groups.

Author and lyricist Jann Aldredge-Clanton will draw from her song and activity book for preschool children, Sing and Dance and Play with Joy! Inclusive Songs for Young Children, from her three inclusive hymnbooks, and from Imagine God! A Children's Musical Exploring and Expressing Images of God. She will include music appropriate for interfaith and multigenerational settings. The songs name Deity as female and male and more to support the foundational biblical truth that all people are created equal in the divine image (Genesis 1:27). Participants will experience music to use in worship services, conferences, workshops, Church School classes, Vacation Bible Schools, music camps, daycare programs, and retreats. The wide variety of divine names and images in this music invites the use of other creative arts in these settings.

Best experienced as a 1-2 hour presentation or a one day 3-4 hour workshop.

“You opened my eyes and heart to embracing the Wisdom of Sophia.
Thank you for blazing the trail and holding the Light to a Higher Truth.”
