

Scholarship Application

We are now welcoming scholarship applications for the 2018 Christian Feminism Today Gathering in St. Louis, July 26-29, 2018. Our Gathering theme is "Standing Up, Speaking Up In Such a Time as This," meant empower people to take action to support important social justice work all over the world.

We understand that some people may have difficulty affording the early registration rate of $189.00 (it includes lunch Friday and Saturday) and/or the cost of travel and hotel. CFT members are committed to making the gathering affordable for as many attendees as possible.

To this end we have created a process for applying for scholarship funds. We regret we may not be able to help all of the people who apply, but we will do our best to help as many as possible. To apply, please fill out the form below. In the first box you get to make your case. Tell us why you'd like to attend and what unique skills and viewpoint you think you can bring to the gathering. Preference will be given to CFT members. You will be expected to cover a portion of the cost, so let us know how much you can afford.

Applications will be accepted through May 15, 2018, but funds may be distributed on a first come, first served basis, so please apply as soon as you can.

Please scan and email completed form to: office [at] eewc [dot] com, or mail to CFT Gathering, PO Box 78171, Indianapolis, IN 46278.

Describe your situation (why you want to attend the gathering, what unique perspectives you bring to the gathering, what work exchange you are willing to provide). Use additional space if you need it.
